PART A - COPYRIGHT TRANSFER FORM

The undersigned, desiring to publish the above paper in a publication of the Transducer Research Foundation, Inc. hereby assign all rights under copyright in the above paper to the Transducer Research Foundation (TRF). The undersigned hereby warrants that the contents of the paper are original and that he/she is the author of the paper. To the extent the paper incorporates text passages, figures, data or other material from the works of others, the undersigned has obtained any necessary permissions. Where necessary, the undersigned has obtained all third party permissions and consents to grant the license above and has provided copies of such permissions and consents to TRF. The undersigned further warrants that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment and that the undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless TRF from any damage or expense that may arise in the event of a breach of any of the warranties set forth above.

Returned Rights - In return for these rights, TRF hereby grants to the above authors, and the employers for whom the work was performed, royalty-free permission to:

1. retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the paper;
2. reuse all or portions of the above paper in other works;
3. reproduce, or have reproduced, the above paper for the author's personal use or for company use provided that (a) the source and TRF copyright are indicated, (b) the copies are not used in a way that implies TRF endorsement of a product or service of an employer, and (c) the copies per se are not offered for sale;
4. make limited distribution of all or portions of the above paper prior to publication; and
5. in the case of work performed under U.S. Government contract, TRF grants the U.S. Government royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the above paper and to authorize others to do so, for U.S. Government Purposes.

In exercising its rights under copyright, TRF will make all reasonable efforts to add in the interests of the authors and employers as well as in its own interest. In particular, TRF requires that:

1. The consent of the first-named author be sought as a condition in granting republication permission to others; and
2. the consent of the undersigned employer be obtained as a condition in granting permission to others to reuse all or portions of the paper for promotion or marketing purposes.

In the event the above paper is not accepted/published by TRF or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by TRF, this agreement becomes null and void,

PART C - CROWN COPYRIGHT CERTIFICATION (where applicable)

This will certify that all authors of the Work are employees of the British or British Commonwealth Government and prepared the Work in connection with their official duties. As such, the Work is subject to Crown Copyright and is not assigned to the TRF as set forth in the first sentence of the Copyright Transfer Section above. The undersigned acknowledges, however, that the TRF has the right to publish, distribute and reprint the Work in all forms and media.

(Authors who are British or British Commonwealth Government employees should also sign line (1) above to indicate their acceptance of all terms other than the copyright transfer.)

TRF POLICY

It is the policy of TRF to own the copyrights in its technical publications, and ID the contributions contained therein, in order to protect its own interests and those of its authors and their employers, and at the same time, facilitate the appropriate re-use of this material by others.

Now U.S. copyright law requires that the transfer of copyrights in each contribution from the author to TRF be confirmed in writing. It is therefore necessary that you execute either Part A - Copyright Transfer Form or Part B -U. S. Government Employee Certification and return it to the person who requested this sheet as promptly as possible.

AUTHOR/COMPANY RIGHT

If you are employed and you prepared your paper as part of your job, the rights to your paper initially rest with your employer. In that case, when you sign the copyright transfer form, we assume You are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to all of the terms and conditions of this form. If not, it should be signed by someone so authorized.

NOTE RE RETURNED RIGHTS: Just as TRF requires a signed copyright transfer form, it is the intent of this form to return rights to the author and employer.

AUTHOR RESPONSIBILITIES

It is the responsibility of the authors, not TRF, to determine whether disclosure of their material requires the prior consent of other parties and, if so, to obtain it.

Authors are also advised that statements and opinions given in the paper are the expression of the authors and are not endorsed by TRF.

JOINT AUTHORSHIP

For jointly authored papers, only one signature is required; however, TRF assumes that all authors have been advised and have consented to the terms of this form.

U.S- GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

Authors who are U.S. Government employees are not required to sign the Copyright Transfer form (Part A), but any co-authors employed outside the Government are required to do so. Part 8 of the form is to be used instead of Part A only if all authors are U.S, Government employees and prepared the paper as part of their job.

NOTE RE GOVERNMENT CONTRACT WORK, Authors whose work was performed under a U.S. Government contract but who are not Government employees are required to sign Part A - Copyright Transfer Form. However, item 6 of the form returns reproduction rights to the U.S. Government when required, even though TRF copyright policy is in effect, with respect to the reuse of material by the general public.

Thank you for your cooperation. Please direct all questions about TRF copyright policy -or this form to Katharine K. Cline at 619-232-9499 or fax (619) 232-0799
